Volleyball Scoresheet Basics Using the GVCA forms

PARENTS ARE CRITICAL
TO OUR SUCCESS.

INTRODUCTION TO SCOREKEEPING

- The goal of this instruction is to provide a basic understanding of
 - The layout of the scoresheet
 - Recording player positions
 - Keeping score
 - Managing substitutions, timeouts, replays
- While some notations in other venues may be slightly different, these notations will suffice for CHS Knight VB
- This tutorial is for you to track along with your own paper scoresheet. Print the one on page 4.

THE GVCA SCORESHEET

Print the scoresheet on the next page, so you can track along.

BEFORE THE GAME

- The referee will call the captain(s) and coaches for the coin toss. This decides who gets to serve first, and who starts on which side of the court.
- The referee will communicate this to the scorekeeper, who will note this on the scoresheet.

Centennial JV will start on the left court, and Roswell JV will start on the right court, as viewed from the score table.

Roswell will serve first: circle serving team.

- Each coach will submit a lineup of starting players to the score table, that may look like one of these.

OR

- These are both blank, but the next page will tell you what info is on them.

BEFORE THE GAME

- Lineup sheets, supplied by coaches, give the serving orders, based on jersey numbers.
- The “C” designates the captain, and the Libero’s number is shown separately.
- Position I is the first server, position II is the next server, and on around it goes.

Lineups get transferred to the scoresheet for both teams by the score keeper.

- Player numbers are written in the order that they will serve, starting with the first server.
- Centennial is receiving first and will rotate once before serving.
- So Centennial player #6 will serve first and is noted in the 1 position on scoresheet.

- Is this what your scoresheet looks like?
- Update your scoresheet to match this one.
- Note – once the lineups are entered into the scoresheet, teams may not change the lineup!!

The Game Begins

- Check to make sure players start in correct locations on court.
- Write the start time in the header when the referee calls for the first serve.
- Now the scorekeeper's focus shifts to recording the following items:
 - Score, substitutions, serve changes, and timeouts
- Each of these items will have a slightly different indication on the form, but fortunately, there is a cheat sheet at the bottom to help.

WHILE THE GAME IS BEING PLAYED

- The scorekeeper should:
 - make sure the correct player is serving, and if not notify the referee immediately after the serve.
 - Note server changes between Team A and B
 - Track the score in the running score column and in the work area
 - Record substitutions
- Tip – you will notice a recording flow back and forth across the page as the game progresses
- Practice: we will play several minutes of the match
 - try to keep up 😊

THE LIBERO

- This is a unique defensive position that is allowed to “substitute” on and off the court WITHOUT using the normal substitution procedure. They just switch with a back row player.
- The Libero movements on and off the court are tracked separately by a designated Libero Tracker on a Libero Tracking form.
- Rules for the Libero:
 - They can only play in the back row
 - They must wear a “distinctive” color jersey
 - They cannot spike or block the ball at the net
 - Libero can switch with any player, as long as they are in the back row.
 - The Libero is allowed to serve (more on this later)
 - The Libero may enter the court without notifying the referee or scorekeeper
- On this last point! The only time the scorekeeper must record something on the scoresheet related to the Libero is when she serves.
- Once a Libero serves, that is the only location in the lineup that she can serve from for the rest of that game.
- The serving rotation position for the Libero gets marked with a triangle.

THE LIBERO

- Fill out all the pregame information (blue)
- Tracker should record all substitutions that take place
- When the Libero enters the court, the tracker places an “L” on the service line next to the player # they are replacing
- If the Libero serves, the tracker should place a triangle around the roman numeral of the associated service line
- This is the only position where the Libero can serve
- When the Libero leaves the court, the tracker records the # of the returning player, and slashes the previous player.

CONGRATULATIONS!!

- Great Work! If you need any further help, please do not hesitate to ask.
- Also, many folks find it helpful to keep score on their own a few times in the stands, just to practice.
- We are always happy to have volunteers help out with scorekeeping.
- Thanks for all you do!!
- Go Knights!!
